

Puzzle 3: Filmy School ANSWER

Each section sort of seems like the description of a movie. They are...kind of. If the REAL movie had had one letter changed in each word of their title, the descriptions you see in the puzzle might be the descriptions. So, using the last one as an example, the real movie "Sully" had one letter changed to "Surly", and thus a the description "Tom hanks is a pilot who lands a plane in a river grumpily."

If you took all the changed letters, they spelled out "Last Name of the Director." And if you then took the names of all the directors of all the movies, the first letters spelled BEST PICTURE, the answer to the puzzle.
